IPHC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

First of all I want to thank all of you for the flowers, cards, and phone calls. For those of you who have not heard, I did a real bad dismount and broke 9 ribs, collar bone and shoulder blade. However I think I made 8 seconds. I'm getting better every day and hope to be riding by late summer.

We had a great Memorial Day weekend show, and I want to thank everyone who helped work the show. It makes the show go so much better.

We had the Iowa Paint Horse Club trail ride the first weekend in June at Natural Gait in Northeast Iowa near Harpers Ferry. What a beautiful area. We had 30 riders from Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Illinois. The owners of Natural Gait, Howard and Donna Bright did a great job of putting on the ride. The food and riding was great. Everyone had a great time. I need to thank pat and Nancy Meade for there help on the ride and nightly entertainment. I have reserved the second weekend of June 2007 for our next ride.

I hope all of you at the World show do well and look forward to see you at Mason City show.

Sincerely, Jerry Cable

LET'S HAVE FUN IN THE TEXAS SUN!

Enhance your leadership skills while having fun in the Texas sun at this year's Youth Leadership Conference. The conference will be held October 6—7, in San Antonio, Texas.

A guest speaker will be on hand to lead the fast-paced and up-beat conference, and various hands-on activities will be used to help "j" members realize their strengths and weaknesses, so they can achieve their full potential as leaders.

About the conference

The 2006 Youth Leadership Conference will offer those attending a chance to improve their leadership skills, as well as share their ideas about AjPHA with other members during a general membership meeting on Friday evening, October 6.

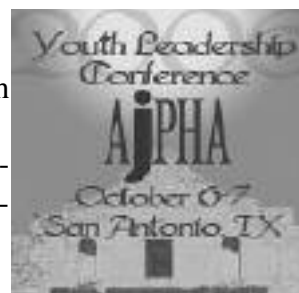

Each AjPHA member is encouraged to be a part of this event, which will also give attendees the opportunity to get to know the new Youth Executive Committee.

Attendees will also have time to hang out with fellow "j" members, and make friends from all over the country. Plus, everyone will have a lot of fun when the entire group will enjoy an afternoon of exciting activities in San Antonio and its surrounding areas.

Registration

Attendees will stay at the Menger Hotel, in San Antonio, Texas. The cost for AjPHA members to attend is $75 ($90 non-members), which includes all meals, transportation in San Antonio and activities outside the hotel. It does not include transportation to the conference or hotel accommodations.

Please visit www.apha.com for all forms and more information.

DeAnn Ebersole brought many clothing items for the board to review for lettering and selling at our shows. Every item was of very high quality and lettered most professionally. It was decided by the club to have several mock-ups made and then to put the items on the website and in the newsletter to take orders from the members.

Jennifer Sheriff suggested raffling a work saddle. The tickets would sell for $1 and they would start selling at the Iowa Horse Fair. The saddle would be given away on Monday, May 29th, 2006 the last day of the Memorial Day show.

Kim Kass asked if she had permission to put a water obstacle in the trail patterns. It was decided to allow the obstacle.

Next board meeting will be held at the Iowa Equestrian Center at 10am on Sunday, April 23rd, 2006.

Jennifer Sheriff moved to adjourn the meeting. 2nd by Jerry Truemper. MC

APHA'S NEW LAS VEGAS SHOW FEATURES BIG CASH PRIZES AND EXCITING ENTERTAINMENT

Cue the bright lights and bring in the money! The countdown to APHA's electrifying new horse show—Paint Vegas—has officially begun. Paint Horse enthusiasts from all over the country are invited to the highly-anticipated event, which will take place December 5–10 at the luxurious South Coast Casino and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Offering cash instead of points to those winning and placing in the show, Paint Vegas is expected to be second only to the APHA World Championship Show in Paint Horse attendance and participation.

Paint Vegas will feature three different categories of classes: futurity, jackpot and slot. Although classes in all categories offer money purses, for owners, the biggest gambles are the slot classes. Each person hoping to participate in these classes—which include yearling long line, maiden yearling stallions and geldings, maiden yearling mares, 4-year-old and under Novice horse hunter under saddle and 4-year-old and under Novice horse Western pleasure events—has to buy a chance to compete. Only those who sent in an application on March 1–10, 2006, will be allowed into the class.

For the top placing horses in these events, the gamble could pay off in a big way. The yearling long line class winner could receive as much as $15,000, depending on the number of entries. While the champions in the remaining slot events could win up to $25,000 each, depending on the number of entries.

Of course, the high-dollar purses aren't the only aspect of Paint Vegas that is impressive. The South Coast Casino is itself, a Las Vegas extravaganza.

The hotel's equestrian center features a 4,400-seat arena, with an event floor, modern sound system, multi-functioning hospitality bar and cattle pens roomy enough to accommodate 2,000 head of cattle. The arena also houses a judge's lounge, show offices and a second warm-up arena, as well as 1,200 climate-controlled horse stalls, a veterinary clinic, farrier center, feed store and washing bays.

Adjacent to the equestrian center, the hotel and casino offer a wide variety of dining and entertainment options. In addition to the 80,000 square-foot casino, there is a 16-screen movie theatre, a 600-seat bingo hall and a 64-lane bowling alley. The hotel boasts 1,350 rooms, a spa, fitness center and abundant convention, exhibit, banquet and trade show space.

Those attending Paint Vegas are eligible for special APHA room rates if staying at South Coast. On December 3–7, APHA members pay $77 per night, while on December 8–9, they pay $110 per night and on December 10, the price goes back down to $77 per night.

The reservation deadline for APHA-member rooms is October 31 and a 9 percent county tax does apply.

Las Vegas's entertainment scene is expected to be in full swing during Paint Vegas. Acts at strip hotels during the show include Ray Romano at the MGM Mirage, Blue Man Group at the Venetian, Penn & Teller at the Rio, Danny Gans at the MGM Mirage and Celine Dion at Caesar's Palace.

Other sightseeing opportunities can be found at the Bellagio where a free fountain show occurs every 30 minutes from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. and then every 15 minutes until midnight. For nine dollars, you can watch the fountains from the Eiffel Tower observation deck of the hotel Paris.

The MGM Mirage's volcano fountain also erupts every 15 minutes after dark until midnight, and the Venetian offers gondola rides for those in a more romantic mood.

However, with respect to these Las Vegas staples, Paint Vegas promises to be just as memorable of an experience. Classes scheduled for the show include working cow horse, reining, yearling long line, Western pleasure, halter, hunter under saddle, cutting, roping and barrel racing.

There will also be special Gamblers Choice trail, working hunter classic, bridless Western pleasure and 3-year-old cutting challenge events.
